For the last 8 years, every year 70 students from 28 countries of Central and Eastern Europe participate in the Educational Initiative for Central and Eastern Europe's summer seminar at the Neuwaldegg Institute in Vienna, Austria.

The OHRID Institute as part of the EICEE, traditionally for the third time is part of the organization of the Summer Seminar. This year, students, graduate students, and assistant professors from a variety of liberal arts disciplines including psychology, philosophy, politics, business, economics, and law are invited to apply for lectures in Economics, Ethics, Bio-Ethics, Political Philosophy and Metaphysics.

This year's Summer Seminar provides a unique opportunity to study the fundamental principles ideas and forces that have shaped modern liberal society, its history, identity and challenges. We are especially pleased to welcome Dr. José Piñera (<http://www.josepinera.com/>), architect of Chile's renowned social security and pension reform, as a lecturer in economics. I

Interested persons should apply with an enclosed biography at: info@oi.org.mk .

Applications are due by July 1st.

The Neuwaldegg Summer Seminar is the annual signature conference of the Neuwaldegg Institute. This week-long learning experience is designed to focus the attention of participants from a variety of fields upon key ideas and concepts that are fundamental to every free society. A team of professors with expertise in different aspects of philosophy will present a wide array of issues to stimulate reflection on the key elements of a stable democracy and genuine freedom.

If selected, the OHRID Institute will grant a scholarship that will cover your lodging, food, books, and the cost of the lectures for the entire week.

The wide range of academic backgrounds and various nationalities will ensure that discussion about the principles discussed can be applied to contemporary circumstances. There will also be ample time for interaction with the professors and other participants.

We are expecting you!
